The Savannah Rebels play hard on the field, harder during the hours after the game is done. GRIDIRON KINK brings you four Rebels players and the women who indulge their needs for kink, whether it be for dominance or submission, along with lifelong love and support. Hot, blond tight end, Jack Winters, dominates on the field, but once the game is over, his beautiful wife, Tawny, owns the key--literally as well as figuratively. Jimmy Bronson, the Rebels' hulking defensive end, is a dom with a secret fetish. Fortunately, he learns the woman of his dreams exists--and that she shares his need to bare all. Wide receiver Sid Cassidy has watched helplessly while the sub of his dreams is abused by a cruel master, but when she comes to him, broken and bruised, he must heal her body before he can begin to show her he can be a gentle, loving master who binds her with beautiful, rope designs. Tough linebacker Matt Rubin's a 24/7 slave to his Keisha, until circumstances force a switch. It's difficult for them both, but their love is strong enough to weather the storm. Four compelling stories of doms and subs, the games they play, and the love that thrives amidst thorns, but also roses. .
