*Standalone*Ro is a college dropout whose mother kicked her out the house when she found out she was pregnant. Alone in the world, Ro seeks out the man who got her pregnant during a one-night stand at a frat party. Tyree is a Rich Thug who is well known in the streets of Harlem. Many people know him by the respect they had for his father who got killed when Ree was sixteen. Ree took his father's drug business and flipped it into something more legal while handling the drug business on the side. After finding out he was a father, Tyree stepped up and handled his business for not only for himself but for his baby mother. Forming a relationship with the woman who was carrying his child, Tyree found problems hitting him in every direction. As a businessman and the man in the streets, Tyree did what any man would have done, he sought revenge and handled his problems. When a problem came knocking at Tyree's door that caused Ro to almost lose her life, what would Tyree do? Would Ro lose her life due to jealousy from a known source? Could Ro handle the pressure and problems that come along with being pregnant by a Rich Thug?
