According to the Harvard Business Review, 90% of Americans don't like to cook at home with 45% saying they hate it and 45% saying they're lukewarm about it. Americans are spending up to 44% of their total food budget on eating out, not counting the money spent on food apps for takeout. In their seventh book, the popular Six Sisters' Stuff bloggers come to the rescue for busy families who want to take the chore out of home cooking with a new collection of easy-to-make replica recipes of popular restaurant and takeout favorites.
