~Editor's Pick~Sixteen year old Mimi Alston has company. No less than three ghosts follow her around, and only she can see them. At her last school, she was known as the girl with imaginary friends. Now Mimi's starting fresh in a new town, where she's determined to make some real friends and fit in for once. She's ready for a normal life...except Mimi never counted on her fascination with troubled goth-boy, Drew. When she's invited to join the elite Gifted Program, Mimi discovers she's not the only one at the school with an unusual talent. Maybe being normal isn't even an option anymore.
