The new novel from the bestselling author of Lone Rider. Sometimes the war comes to you . . . After serving as a Navy medic, Dawson Callahan is back in the States and ready to start over. Leaving his native Texas, he heads for the wide open spaces of Wyoming, where he finds work as a wrangler. True, hell mainly be wrangling chickensand wrangling Sarah Carters granny, whos still spry, but in need of a little caregiving. But ranch work is ranch work, and its hard to turn down a job offer from the beautiful Sheriff Carterespecially when she deputizes him as one of her lawmen. Sarah loves her grandmother, but with her law enforcement career keeping her busy, they could both use some help from a strong, steady man. And policing Lincoln County has only gotten tougher since a merciless drug lord arrived in the area. When Sarah takes a bullet on the job, its Dawson who comes to her rescueand though they both thought they left war behind in Afghanistan, theyll do whatever it takes to protect whats theirs, even if it means facing down traumas theyve buried for years. Because love isnt for the faint of heart .
