Ever finish your kid's homework? Netflix cheat on your husband? Try to explain Alexa to your mother? If so, you're not alone--Stacey Gustafson's back at it again with Are You Still Kidding Me? In this hilarious and heartwarming sequel to her #1 Amazon bestseller Are You Kidding Me? My Life with an Extremely Loud Family, Bathroom Calamities, and Crazy Relatives. Gustafson tackles the foibles of modern family life--from toddlers and teens to empty nesters--with wry wit and plenty of humor. Grab a cup of coffee, ease into the easy chair, and be prepared to laugh out loud along with Gustafson--she may not be your new best friend, but you'll feel like she is by the time you've finished these forty-five stories of family life, written by a mother who's seen it all. "I love Stacey Gustafson's voice -- her stories and how she shares them! She is entertaining, relevant and relatable, and her new book is for anyone who is a parent, child, spouse, or other."-- Wendy Liebman, stand-up comedian, semi-finalist on America's Got Talent, Season 9, Taller on TV. "Stacey Gustafson is like the sister you always wanted in the suburbs: Funny, just a little bit snarky, and the perfect partner in crime against kids, husbands, and uptight fashionista moms. Her new book finds the humor in all those outrageous parenting moments that threaten your sanity in a way that is completely relatable and totally hysterical."--Tracy Beckerman, syndicated columnist and author of Lost in Suburbia, a Momoir "Stacey's next set of adventures are as humorous as her first. Even though her kids are now grownups the family funny has not ended."-- Joel Madison, actor, television comedy writer and producer for shows such as Roseanne, The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air, and HBO's Crashing
