FAMOUS LAST WORDS - A persons dying words are special and unique because theres nothing more to follow. Its no accident some last words of the famous seem rehearsed inasmuch as they knew death was coming and wanted a memorable quotation. Others are spontaneous, clever even funny and more than a few quotes are downright mean spirited. I suppose it would be fair to say a persons unvarnished last words point more to their true character than any contrived image they may have maintained in life. While other final utterances are right on the mark. Not that he is the greatest of celebrities in this book but take W.C. Fields. He was argumentative, ornery, and seemingly delighted in being as much of pain in the butt to others as possible.FAMOUS LAST WORDS - God damn the whole friggin world and everyone in it except you, Carlotta. - W.C. Fields, speaking to his mistress The recent passing of Apples Steve Jobs left many in the world rocked. In the end the hard-edged technological genius was still the 1960s trippy hippy when he encountered something of extraordinary beauty as he took a step towards his ethereal journey.FAMOUS LAST WORDS - OH WOW. OH WOW. OH WOW. - Steve Jobs When death is suddenly thrust on some people their last thoughts and words are to balance the scales of justice. In the case of songstress Selena she was determined the facts would be known and her murderer would be identified.FAMOUS LAST WORDS - Help me help me Ive been shot. The lady (Yolanda Saldivar) in room 158. - Selena Ginger Allen was Elvis Presleys beauteous final girlfriend and one night, as he ambled towards the bathroom, his favorite reading room, she cautioned him not to fall asleep in there. FAMOUS LAST WORDS - Ok, I wont. - Elvis Presley, responding to his girlfriends caution to not fall asleep in the bathroom A person might think larger than life swaggering six-gun shooting cowboy movie icon John Wayne would have a pilgrim or two in his last words but no, not the Duke. In the end he was a just a man, a man fully knowing the true treasure in life.FAMOUS LAST WORDS - Youre my girl, I love you. - John Wayne, to his wife -Then there are other types of men, horrible, villainous men, and awful men. Monsters walking among us like John Wayne Gacy who was every evil thing we knew he was right to his last breath.FAMOUS LAST WORDS - Kiss my ass. - John Wayne Gacy, prior to his execution for the murder of 33 men There are others who became known to the world only their last moments on Earth. Lisa Beamer knew her husband as a simple and loving man, a good man, an ordinary man and in the end she heard Americas conqueror of criminals, our sudden patriotic hero on her cell phone as he and others aboard United Airlines flight 93 organized and sacrificed themselves fighting back against the terrorists that day above Pennsylvania on September 11, 2001.FAMOUS LAST WORDS - Lets roll. - Todd Beamer, aboard flight 93 on 9/11
