Written by Dan Blank, Everything Your Coach Never Told You Because You're a Girl is one of the most inspirational stories ever written for the female athlete. Coaches and teams of all sports - from soccer to golf to equestrian - have embraced this book as the foundation for a new brand of female competitor. Everything Your Coach Never Told You isn't a soccer book, it's a life book filled with competitive lessons that most girls never get the chance to hear. The edgy and passionate voice of Don Bratschie makes this audio-book jump to life with stories of a small-college soccer team that refused to conform to the warm and fuzzy image of female athletes. Listeners will join their remarkable journey from doormat to champions and feel as if they are right there in the locker room on game day, listening to a coach driving them forward into battle.
