Quan is on the verge of being great. He's overcome a lot. Including being falsely accused and bashed in the media. Nothing could keep the smile off his face, as the woman who has resided in his heart from the moment she bumped into him agrees to be his. Things are going right in his life, but like all things, when something good happens, to him something bad always follows. Will he be able to fight this battle, or will it be just too much for him to handle? Gee has fought for a woman he knows is worth it. He's determined to show her that, despite his age, he has the heart and determination of a man twice his age. He has an old soul, and it shows. In his quest to prove to her he can be all that she needs, event, after event, attempts to dismantle those words. Will he be able to stand the tests that he has to face, or will all his efforts begin to look like they are not enough? Iveyanna took a leap of faith grabbing hold to the man she felt like was out of her league. She's finally happy with the way her life is going. Being that she has never been one to deal with confrontations. She's not prepared for the things she has to face by being with Quan. Is she able to be the woman she feels like she is, or will she let the thoughts, and ideas, of others, cause her to give up on the man who owns her heart? Seanna is in a new place in her life, she has released her truths and gained a wonderful man. Although, she's let him in, there's something she's still holding out on. When her nightmare turns into her daymare, how will she handle it? Will it drive her man away, or will it turn her into the person she once was? Daeshona's fate has been given. Like the saying goes, 'All good things must come to an end.' She's living with the reality of that saying. But she's given a beacon of hope. She takes it with no questions asked. Not knowing she's has made a deal with the devil his self. Will she make it through, or will she reap what she's sown? Read, and find out in this amazing finale what it really means when one says 'Ain't No Better Love Than The One I Got.'
