"Could this all be a ploy to get into my bed, scope out my family, and drain us all dry before MJ takes off?" That's the question that Luca keeps pondering. The more light is shed on who Asli really is, the more Luca is wondering if he can handle all that being with her will bring. The closer he gets, Luca must admit that loving Asli scares him, and it's not all about the trouble she's laying on the table. No, Luca's more afraid of the murderous, savage feelings he's having...feelings that he locked away with a promise to never indulge in again. However, as the walls start to close in, Luca knows there is no turning back. Read the exciting conclusion to the much talked about series.
