Kate Kellan never wanted to be an actress. Although she is thankful for the life changing opportunity her career has given her, she wants to move on with her life. All Kate has to do is convince her overbearing mom she isn't crazy to ditch the career that changed their fortunes. But before she can break the news to her mom, Kate is pursued in the darkness by someone who means her harm. However, when she is saved by Red, an incredibly strong, and incredibly attractive stranger, she isn't sure if she is being played. Especially when Red confesses he is in town for a meeting about joining Bear Creek Protectors. When bear shifter, Red, meets his mate, she is suspicious of his motives. But soon he breaks down Kate's barriers and convinces her he is only trying to protect her. But as the danger escalates, his services as a bodyguard are just what Kate needs. Along with his body in her bed! Can they work together to find out who is behind the attacks? Or will they lose their happy ever after forever?
