Perfect for Young Adult fantasy readers who enjoyed the Twilight series. "The books excitement comes in finding out what James wolf form will do next and what sort of criminal hell set straight during his sudden appearances...thriller helped along by a wolfman whos full of surprises." - Kirkus Reviews When Lucy first noticed James in her college history class she never would have expected that an exciting romance and incredible adventure was about to begin for her. She will soon enter a world of unlikely new friends, Greek mythology and magic. She will also discover a secret society of werewolves that have sworn to fight evil and to protect the innocent. From The Metropolitan Museum of Art to Central Park to Gramercy Park, the paranormal romance and adventure unfolds in the intoxicating atmosphere of Manhattan in New York City and on the sandy beaches of the Hamptons in Long Island. Full of suspense, passion, strong emotions and plenty of twists and turns. Sand, surf, sweet summer love and a werewolf adventure like no other. This Young Adult fantasy book is suitable for older teens and adults who enjoy fantasy writing filled with supernatural suspense, Greek mythology, adventures, humor, detailed descriptions, complex characters, creative plot twists, a werewolf as the main character and romance that is passionate, but not very steamy or too detailed. Part One ends with a number of unresolved plot lines. However, Part Two and Part Three in the series are available on Amazon and resolve all the plot lines.
