This book contains the most fresh, updated, and unique college admissions advice on the market. "The Authentic College Admissions Almanac" details the strategies that you should follow in order to get into the top colleges in the nation. This book was created by a collaboration of top students who just recently successfully navigated the seemingly daunting college admissions landscape. Nathan Halberstadt - Vanderbilt University Student- Author Varun Tekur - Harvard University Student- Editor and Major Contributor Jordan Cline - Columbia University Student and Columbia Admissions Office Employee- Contributor Eric Tarlin- Harvard University Student- Contributor William Cuzzo - MIT Student- Contributor Despite the fact that we have different interests and talents, we all succeeded by following the guidelines laid out in this book. Other books on this topic are written by adults who are far removed from the actual admissions process because they haven't gone through it in decades. This book, written by students and for students, will teach you how to stand out in the applicant pool while still having a life.
