Cherry = Ripe and Delicious. Too tempting. Even though I was born with a silver spoon in my mouth, I built my own successful R&D company from scratch. I'm always looking for talent. That's how I meet Cherry Bomb — underground MMA fighting princess. After watching one match, I'm hooked and sign her on as my newest investment. Sweet, tart, and fresh, I want to do more than spar with her. I want her. And that's a problem. We have different priorities. Hers, to take care of her family, while I need to find mine. But I'm quickly becoming addicted to her. It's an addiction I need to kick. If she doesn't KO me first.  This is a full length novel with a happily ever after, no cliffhanger, no cheating, and plenty of steam. ***
