In his latest book, world-renowned shamanic teacher Alberto Villoldo takes readers on an enriching, soulful path, through stories, dreams, and ancient rites and ceremonies. The Heart of the Shaman unveils teachings of the Laika, an ancient civilization of medicine men and women whose healing practices and visions changed the world. Villoldo takes readers on a journey through their wisdom practices and shows how we can bring these ideas into our modern lives. He also introduces readers to one of the last Laika - Don Manuel - and shares his hope for a new future for humanity. Villoldo teaches readers how to wake up to their personal power, through Laika practises, and, mostly importantly, readers will learn how they can create balance and give back to the world through the fundamental forces that control everything.
