At thirty years old, I've already checked off the boxes of a successful traditional life: married, financial security, and a thriving career as a clothing designer. Compared to my turbulent past, my present life in sunny San Francisco is nothing short of perfect. And then one night something shocking happens to me. A shameful experience my husband is forced to witness by the sinfully handsome monster, Nicholas Vidal. Nick is dangerous and terrifies me, but his possessive, scorching touch steals my ability to deny him. As I fight wanting a man I should hate, I seek peace in the chaos unravelling my blissful life. But soon I learn there's no peace where demons exist. There is only torment. Torment is a steamy romantic thriller. It features a protective, dominant hero and strong heroine. No abuse, but it includes dark themes. HEA guaranteed.
