CONTINUE ►

Protect your family, and skip the stress! It's so important to plan ahead for your loved ones -- and with The Busy Family's Guide to Estate Planning, you can do so easily and with confidence. The book outlines 10 simple steps to take. Just tackle one step every month, and soon you can cross estate planning off your to-do list -- and have peace of mind knowing you've looked after your family. Author Liza Weiman Hanks, a lawyer and a parent, gives you practical guidance about what's crucial to do now and what can wait. The Busy Family's Guide to Estate Planning will help you write your will, determine how much life insurance your family needs, figure out whether you need a living trust, learn about powers of attorney and work with a lawyer, if you need to. The CD-ROM provides 15 easy-to-use forms -- including a simple will -- and worksheets that will help you get organized, make important decisions and track your progress. Also, an audio interview with the author will answer questions you may have about wills and estate planning.
