A Jane Austen journal sure to delight and inspire! This five-year journal has become one of the most popular ways to keep a diary. Simply turn to today's date and take a few moments to reflect on one of 365 quotes from Austen's iconic works. When you finish the year, start again. As the years pass, you'll notice how your entries evolve alongside the timeless witticisms of this beloved Regency author. Sample Quotes: "I declare after all there is no enjoyment like reading! How much sooner one tires of anything than of a book! When I have a house of my own, I shall be miserable if I have not an excellent library."—Pride and Prejudice "Run mad as often as you like, but do not faint."—Mansfield Park "There is nothing I would not do for those who are really my friends. I have no notion of loving people by halves, it is not my nature."—Northanger Abbey
