Mock election. Real world danger. Ainsley's relationship and reputation may not survive the campaign trail. Still reeling from the targeted attack on her family, Ainsley is determined to keep a low profile during senior year. But a mandatory class project pulls her back into the political fray as the mock Democratic presidential candidate. With the entire campus watching, Ainsley knows it's only a matter of time before her rival turns the spotlight on her and her secretive girlfriend. Groomed from birth by her politically connected family, Ainsley knows she can handle the abuse. But shielding her girlfriend's secrets is a matter of life or death. To protect the ones she loves, Ainsley will need to use every shrewd political move in the book. The Hidden One is the captivating second book in a series of lesbian romantic suspense novels that shed light on modern American politics. If you like romance that defies the odds, a satirical take on current events, and twists you won't see coming, then you'll love T.B. Markinson's compelling tale. Buy The Hidden One to cast your vote for this compelling series today!
