He was my enemy, but my heart had other ideas. I live by three rules. One: I never get lower than an A in any class. Two: I never lose a cross-country race. And Three: I never talk to Cade Kelley. Well, number three came crashing down the moment Principal Connell asks me to guide Cade back onto the right path. Something about helping him turn his life around. If only Principal Connell knew our history, he'd understand just what he's asking. But, I have an incessant need to please all adults, so of course I say yes. When Cade seems pleased as well, I can't help but wonder if this is part of some scheme. A plan he's worked up to finish me once and for all. Apparently, what he did in junior high wasn't enough. Just when I think I have everything figured out, my life spirals out of control. Suddenly, adults suck—especially parents—and pleasing them becomes the last thing I want to do. What confuses me even more is in the moment I choose to run away, the first person I go to is the one guy I swore I would never get close to. Hopefully, the Cade I've uncovered won't hurt me because I'm so close to breaking.
