Skylin's life is quickly turning into a chaotic mess the longer she stays with the Everetts. Not only is something as simple as going to school dangerous, but her dreams of darkness are becoming more frequent and intense. Fortunately, she has Foster and his brothers to help her, along with the link between them. That is until an incident at school alters the link. Things start to get really complicated then, and only get worse when the wall around Skylin begins to dissolve, revealing the secrets hidden behind it.
