Learning how to love money came naturally for Gotti, but loving another being presented a problem. When it comes to a young lady by the name of Storm, Gotti is playing for keeps. He thinks he has it sewn up in the bag until he realizes that Storm isn't the easy type. Storm loves all the attention she's receiving from Gotti, but one person is stopping her from being everything that Gotti needs her to be. Storm finds herself stuck between an old bond and a new flame. Learning that all diamonds don't shine is a hard pill for both Gotti and Storm to swallow. They must work through the fact that her love may be stronger for Kway, but she's not willing to give up Gotti. Zuri has her eyes set on the prize, a better life for her daughter, and she'll stop at nothing to ensure it. She works hard and doesn't allow many in, but a few encounters with Rocco puts her life in danger. Still, she can't seem to stay away. Rocco is all about family and money. He's never seen anything past the hustle. Living life in the fast lane has been his reality, but his association with Gotti includes Zuri, who effortlessly works her way into his life and heart. When troubled waters threaten to sink their ship, they're left with the ultimate question; are they willing to swim or drown for the dopest love thus far.
