CONTINUE ►

Now available in a revised edition on CD-ROM, combining all of the overlapping information found in Mrs. Carson's preceding Durbin-Logsdon genealogies. Thomas Durbin (b.1626 England; d. 1697) was the immigrant ancestor and American progenitor who came to this country with the colony brought over by Lord Baltimore in 1638. He had at least two children, Christopher and William, who were both born in Baltimore, MD. The first known Logsdon in America was William who came over with Captain Smith in 1674, landing in VA. A full name index and many pictures highlight this edition. 2001, CD, Graphic Images, Adobe Acrobat, PC and MAC, index, 1567 pp.
