One of the most celebrated and exciting of all books on Antarctic exploration. Cherry-Garrard was the youngest member of the ill-fated 1912 expedition of Robert Falcon Scott to the South Pole, and he later wrote this authoritative account of Scott's race against the Norwegian, Roald Amundsen, to be the first to reach the Pole, and of its disastrous outcome. Original publication date 1922 New introduction by Karl E. Meyer Photos by expedition member Herbert Ponting New maps
