Jalynn I'm the girl who's always picking up the pieces of other people's mistakes. Until tonight. I accidentally cause one false start, and now I'm being pulled into a guy's car—who everyone only knows as Falcon—before an illegal street race. He may not want anyone to truly know who he is, but he's met his match. Game on, Falcon. Austin People know I run these races. They know not to mess with me, or my car. When the identity of the girl who causes a false start is revealed, I have to make an example of her. Letting her see who I am was never the plan. Neither was running into her the next day as my brother's new assistant. She said she wanted nothing to do with me, but when I yank her into a janitor's closet, making sure she keeps my secret is the last thing on my mind. She may want more than my secrets, but my racing may be the last thing I try to hide.
