Escape to the seaside village of Little Pondale with Part Two of this heart-warming and romantic, four-part serial. Mia Ward was amazed to inherit her great-aunt Matilda's thatched cottage in the tiny seaside village of Little Pondale – especially as Mia didn't know she had a great-aunt Matilda. She was even more astonished to discover she'd only inherit the place if she lives there for a year. Now Mia and her friends, Ella and Garrick are embracing village life. Garrick's also embracing someone in The Frog and Lily, so Mia turns her attention to one or two of her sexy, single neighbours. But great-aunt Matilda remains an enigma and Mia's still determined to discover who she was. When Mia's mum, Lori arrives, she's eager to see what the summer has to offer. There's the Kite Festival, the Fête, the Frog Hill Run, but what really appeals to Lori, much to Mia's horror, is the Midsummer Night's naked bathing in the pond at Frog's Hollow. As sweltering days surrender to sultry nights, love is definitely in the air. And when an incident means Mia has to face her greatest fear, help arrives from a surprising source. But one thing is clear... someone is trying to make sure Mia doesn't stay in Little Pondale... What everyone is saying about this book: "With a beautiful setting, romance and intrigue, this really is a fantastic series. All in all, a book to keep you hooked. I really can't wait for the next instalment." sibzzreads - Reviewer "The storyline keeps getting better with each moment that passes." - Jess Bookish Life – Reviewer "As with the last book, I am desperate to read the next instalment to see what will happen next" bytheletterbookreviews – Reviewer "I've been completely enthralled with all the goings-on and am so looking forward to reading the third novel.
