I would hurt myself laughing, might even die of laughter' – The Scotsman 'expect to laugh out loud, shed a few tears and be totally captivated by Doreen's stories of her playful and often naughty Siamese cats' – Your Cat Magazine 'This is a funny and poignant reflection of life with that most beautiful, elegant, and haughty of felines.' - The Good Book Guide 'Doreen has a wonderful, warm, and witty way with words that bring the personality of each cat to life and perfectly describe her love of them.' - Life With Siamese Cats 'A chaotic, hilarious and heart-wrenching love affair with the most characterful of feline breeds' – The People's Friend 'A book for those whose world is bounded and ruled by cats; even those who can take-them-or-leave-them will find a generous serving of amusement here' - Kirkus Review 'Every so often, there comes along a book — or if you're lucky books — which gladdens the heart, cheers the soul...
