Flori-duh! There's a reason why so many crazy things happen in the Sunshine State. But Val and her wacko friends can only take credit for half of them.... St. Pete Beach attracts weirdos like mosquitoes to a bug zapper. After being raked over the coals in Europe, Val Fremden flies back to her old stomping grounds to find everyone and everything she knew squashed under the heels of change. Seven years abroad has erased her finances, credit history, friends and social standing. Divorced, broke, and staring 45 in its haggard face, Vals got nothing left to go on but her own dry sense of humor and a pair of wobbly thighs. Will the life coach advice of a beer-guzzling old lady she meets on the beach help Val find her way -- or will it lead her even further astray? Perpetually primed for disaster, starting over again wont be easy for Val. But she soon discovers that in the world of the down and out, friends (and enemies) can come from very unexpected places. If you like wacky, deeply flawed characters and laugh-out-loud situations, you'll love Glad One! Its the first book in Margaret Lashleys hilarious Val Fremden Mystery Series.
