

A dual-language edition of contemporary stories from throughout the Hispanic world, perfect for learners of either language. This volume of ten short stories, with parallel translations, offers students of Spanish at all levels the opportunity to enjoy a wide range of contemporary literature, without having constantly to refer back to a dictionary. Richly diverse in themes and styles, the stories are by both new and well-established writers and range from the sharp insights of Gabriel Garca Mrquezs Mara dos Prazeres and the teasing, deceptive simplicity of Javier Marass On the Honeymoon to Isabel Allendes powerful evocation of the oral traditions of the Amerindian and the philosophical speculation of Laura Freixass Absurd Ending. Complete with notes, the stories make excellent reading in either language.
